IMPORTANT NOTICE

1. Jurors who are not employed by the Federal or District of Columbia Government will receive for each day's attendance $20 plus mileage at 10¢ per mile from residence to court and return. Government employees, both Federal and District, will receive their regular pay without deduction from other leave authorized by statute, plus mileage.
2. If there is grave illness in your family or a similarly serious problem which would cause an undue hardship or extreme inconvenience if you should serve as a juror, you must appear in person on the Monday immediately before the date shown above, at 9:30 a. m., at the place shown and explain the facts relating thereto. You will be free to depart from the courthouse as soon as the judge has ruled upon your excuse. Bring with you any supporting letter from your physician or other persons. This appearance will not entitle you to service or mileage fees.
3. If you are physically unable to appear on the Monday mentioned in paragraph 2 above to request excuse from jury service because of illness, you must notify the court immediately by letter, describing the illness. You should use the back of this form for your letter; and if you are under the care of a physician, the letter should be accompanied by a certificate from your physician.
4. Unless you receive a notice from this court granting a requested temporary excuse, or unless the court notifies you by card or phone to report at a different time, you must attend as directed in this summons. Failure to obey this summons may be punishable by fine and/or imprisonment.
5. Please fill out the enclosed card and return it at once in the enclosed free postage envelope whether or not you are, or wish to be, temporarily excused.
6. The U. S. Marshall has no control over the jury lists and cannot excuse any person from jury duty.
